1. Yet to-do's 2. Yearn to-do's 3. I Can't remember what I bought this absolutely gorgeous fabric for, and I really want to use it, to-do's 4. I can't figure out how to start and/or finish to-do's 5. Help me make this one work to-do's 6. I just have to get this done in a hurry for a baby shower, wedding gift, or graduation to-do's. Does the list go on and on? Can you hear that six year old quilt in the closet, crying for mercy? Grab it and come to the camp that is truly the perfect quilt camp for you. Come Prepared for the UFO Quilt Camp Extravaganza! and Yard Sale !!!

What a treat. Three magnificent summer days of uninterrupted time to catch up on all of your Unfinished Objects (quilts!) This is the perfect occasion to tackle all of those drawers, bags, boxes, and baskets of fabric. Sort through your magazines and piles of patterns, and start checking things off your "to-do" list. If your personal collection of "quiltfabric.com" is making you feel overwhelmed, clear your calendar for July 6-9th, and come to "Purpose Driven Quilt Camp" and find some sweet relief.

You never know, you might be able to squeeze in a little time for a hayride, swim, canoe trip, tennis game, visit to summer camp chapel, a hike, or a campfire with s'mores. Our wonderful July Camp vendor, Quilter's Harvest, is bringing a Midwest Living with Amy Butler Trunk Show. They invite you to try this cute shoulder or hand bag.
